“We are incredibly grateful for the recent gift of $10,000 from an alum to support student scholarships!” Pacific Union College (PUC) recently shared on social media.

The donor shared that the gift was made as a way of saying thanks to PUC for wonderful memories of their time as a student there, including the support of caring professors and developing friendships that have lasted a lifetime.

“We can’t think of a better way to honor happy memories than by helping more students create memories of their own – thank you so much!” the school stated.
